

Host Site: Iowa Legal Aid

Project: Rural Iowa Direct Client Service & Outreach Fellowship

Location: Rural Iowa – TBD

Description of Fellow Project:

A law student will provide civil legal assistance to rural clients in the areas of domestic abuse, custody disputes, evictions, foreclosures, utility shut-offs, expungements, community economic development, and consumer matters. In addition to direct client service work, the law student will work with the regional office to design and implement an outreach campaign to the rural clients including meeting with key community partners, designing a targeted social media plan and posting outreach materials strategically in the rural areas.

